

As a professional TV/radio engineer (General Radiotelephone licensed) and long-time amateur radio operator, I know that the shortwave bands are a precious resource, and are already subject to many sources of interference (power line and otherwise). Please ensure that any action regarding BPL contains FULL PROTECTION against even slight interference to these sensitive frequencies.